According to former Pfizer vice president Michael Yeadon, the world is "closer than ever" to the unleashing of the next manufactured crisis, which just like covid before it will be completely contrived for the purpose of implementing maximum tyranny and terror on the masses, thus leading to a new world order with far fewer people.

"Food and fertilizer production: it's in the wrong place, and it's deliberate," Yeadon warned in a recent interview – watch below.

"They're smashing the means of manufacturing enough calories to keep 7.8 billion people alive. And where do you think that's going to end? The answer is mass starvation, war, and a global migration – that's what's going to happen if you and everybody else choose to do nothing at all."

systems needed to keep the current global population of around eight billion people nourished and thriving.

We know that very few people are actually nourished and thriving, especially in third world countries that are no longer receiving grain shipments from Ukraine and Eastern Europe due to the Russian invasion.

"They're coming for our children; they're coming for our food; they're coming for our resources; they're coming for every form of energy; they're shutting it all down – they're not playing games," commented Jones.

"They are releasing viruses and blaming it on global warming. They're cutting off the food supply and blaming global warming. They're starting wars and blaming global warming. They're creating the economic, cultural systems of total revolution and collapse: the great reset, admitting this is their plan, only to then pose as 'saviors' to bring in their world government, a transhumanist global system on its ashes."

Yeadon says we are in the midst of the worst global crime, which will last for who-even-knows how long, and it has the intent of total control and removing everybody's freedom. He believes the plan will involve killing many more millions, if not billions, of people before it is complete.

"The components of the vaccines that they have used – you know, exaggerated PCR testing, the use of fear-based messaging throughout the media – this stuff has been rehearsed by militaries and the people whom we might think of as the 'spooks' for at least 25 years, and possibly longer," Yeadon warns.

"It's not going to return to the old normal. One, that's never their intention. So it's not going to happen passively because there isn't an actual phenomenon that is going to wear off. So if you comply with this tyranny, it will end with the loss of your liberty and probably your life."
